

CHANGE IN BEROCHO ALERT

Kellogg's Rice Krispies & Coco Pops have changed their recipe and manufacturing process.

Due to this the ברכות have changed and are now as below.

Rice Krispies is מזונות

Coco Pops Original is שהכל

(This is according to all opinions, even for those who previously held the berocho is Hoadomoh for both cereals)

ברכה אחרונה for both cereals remains בורא נפשות

For the next few months, there is still stock from the old recipe, where the berocho would remain as previously.

Old recipe and new recipe can be identified as follows:

Old recipe

Old recipe contains Rice and no flour.

New recipe

New recipe does not contain Rice, just Rice Flour, and the Coco Pops also contain Corn flour.
